Books make great gifts!

It's simple, but it's not easy

From Applebaum Training Institute

It's simple to know that children need a combination of love and limits. The part that is tougher is actually setting limits (boundaries) and then following through. Have faith in yourself that you can do it. You can be loving, even on those days when kids test your patience. You can set limits and follow through. Doing the right thing isn't always easy, but it's worth it in the end.

Congratulations to our graduating employee, Sawyer Fratzke from Hutchinson High School. Sawyer will continue working at Kids Inc and attend Ridgewater College for one year before heading to Winona State University in Minnesota. Congratulations and Good Luck in the future!
